

Policy on Prevention of Sexual Harassment

Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal of Sexual Harassment at the Workplace

Traverse Inc. (the "Company") is committed to providing every employee with a safe, respectful, and dignified working environment, free from sexual harassment. This Policy is framed in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 (the "Act") and the rules made under it.

1. Scope

This Policy applies to all employees of the Company at all its workplaces, including the restaurant premises and any location visited in connection with work. It protects all women at the workplace, whether employed on a regular, temporary, contractual, trainee, or any other basis, and covers the conduct of all persons, including employees, contractors, vendors, and visitors.

2. What Constitutes Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour, whether directly or by implication:

- physical contact and advances;
- a demand or request for sexual favours;
- sexually coloured remarks;
- showing pornography;
- any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.

The following circumstances, among others, if they occur in relation to any act of sexual harassment, may amount to sexual harassment: an implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in employment; a threat of detrimental treatment; a threat about present or future employment status; interference with work or the creation of an intimidating, offensive, or hostile work environment; or humiliating treatment likely to affect health or safety.

3. Internal Committee

The Company has constituted an Internal Committee (IC) to receive and redress complaints of sexual harassment. The IC comprises:

Role	Name	Designation / Affiliation
Presiding Officer	Saumyaa Lulla	Senior Woman Employee, Traverse Inc.
Member	Poonam Singh	Employee Member
Member	Geeta Dhabhi	Employee Member
External Member	Jogita Jagwani	External Member

The Presiding Officer and members hold office for such term as permitted under the Act. Any member found to have breached confidentiality, or against whom proceedings are pending, shall be replaced in accordance with the Act.

4. How to Make a Complaint

1. An aggrieved woman may make a written complaint of sexual harassment to the Internal Committee within three months of the incident, or within three months of the last incident in a series. The IC may extend this period for good reason.
2. The complaint may be given to the Presiding Officer or any member of the IC. Where the complainant is unable to make the complaint in writing, the IC shall render reasonable assistance to put it in writing.
3. The IC may, before initiating an inquiry and at the complainant's request, take steps to settle the matter through conciliation, provided no monetary settlement forms the basis of conciliation.

5. Inquiry and Timelines

4. The IC shall complete its inquiry within a period of ninety days, following the principles of natural justice, and shall give both parties an opportunity to be heard.
5. During the pendency of an inquiry, the IC may recommend interim measures, such as transferring the complainant or respondent, or granting leave to the complainant.
6. The IC shall provide its report of findings to the Company within ten days of completing the inquiry, and the Company shall act on the recommendations within sixty days.
7. Where the allegation is proved, the IC may recommend action for misconduct in accordance with the Company's service rules, and may recommend deduction from the respondent's salary as compensation to the aggrieved woman.
8. Where a complaint is found to be malicious or made knowing it to be false, the IC may recommend action against the complainant; however, the mere inability to substantiate a complaint shall not attract such action.

6. Confidentiality

The identity and address of the aggrieved woman, the respondent, and any witness, together with the contents of the complaint, the inquiry proceedings, and the recommendations, shall be kept strictly confidential and shall not be published or disclosed to any person, save as permitted under the Act.

7. Protection Against Retaliation

No employee shall be victimised or subjected to any detrimental treatment for making a complaint in good faith, for being a witness, or for assisting the Internal Committee. Any act of retaliation will itself be treated as misconduct.

8. Awareness

The Company shall display this Policy and the names and contact details of the Internal Committee at a conspicuous place at the workplace, and shall conduct orientation and awareness for employees and the IC.

9. Commitment to All Employees

While the Act applies specifically to the protection of women, the Company is committed to a workplace free of harassment for every employee. The Company extends the same standards of dignity, respect, and protection to all employees regardless of gender, and any employee who experiences harassment may raise it with the Internal Committee or their manager, and it will be addressed fairly under the Company's policies. The statutory process set out above applies to complaints to which the Act applies.

Traverse Inc.

DELIBERATE HOSPITALITY

Acknowledgement of Receipt

I confirm that I have received, read, and understood this Policy on the Prevention of Sexual Harassment, and I know how to contact the Internal Committee.

Signature of Employee

Name: _____

Date: _____

For Traverse Inc.

Eashan Lulla

Founder

Date: _____